TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

Ordinary (Full) Membership

Ordinary Membership of Oatlands Community Association Inc (OCA) is open to all individuals of the local community. Ordinary members must agree to abide by the Objectives of the Association. Financial ordinary members have a right to vote at the Annual General Meeting and General Meetings of the Association. Ordinary members also have the right to nominate for any position on the Management Committee.

Group Membership

Group Membership of Oatlands Community Association Inc (OCA) is open to all local community groups, not-for-profit organisations (registered in Tasmania). An appointed representative of the community group is entitled to vote at the Annual General Meeting and General Meetings of the Association, but does not have the right to nominate for any position on the Management Committee other than their representative role.
